LAX IN THE LOWLANDS

The Fourth edition of the Amsterdam Lowlands Lacrosse Tournament

Amsterdam: the beautiful canals, the bikes, the museums, the Red Light District, the coffee-shops and...The Amsterdam Lowlands Lacrosse Tournament.

This year will mark the fourth edition of the Tournament. From the 22nd to the 24th of May, the Amsterdam Lions will host a tournament built on camaraderie, enthusiasm, fun and, most importantly, some bad-ass lax. With more than 16

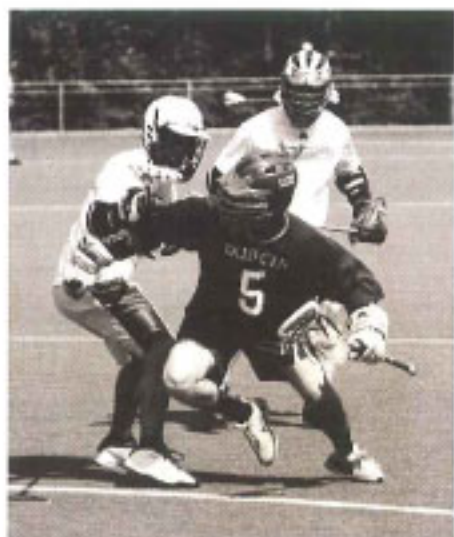

Wolbrink conceived the idea of hosting a tournament in honor of our flat country, also called "the low-lands". The purpose was to create a platform for international lacrosse in Holland that would inspire the young lacrosse nation to grow.

The latest edition in 2008 was a huge success, with 13 teams from all over the world joining the competition. At the end of the weekend, Dublin Lacrosse teams (men and women), professional refs, lacrosse clinics and nightly parties in Amsterdam city centre, it is bound to be a great success again.

In 2003, the first Lacrosse tournament in The Netherlands took place: the Amsterdam E-Lacrosse tournament. From then on, Lacrosse has made huge progress in The Netherlands, resulting in the founding of the Dutch National Lacrosse League in 2006 and a 2nd place finish at the European Championships in 2008. The Lowlands Tournament is a good indicator of the evolution of lacrosse in Holland. In 2005 the creative mind of Tim

(men) and the Leeds Penguins (women) were crowned champions. The 2009 edition promises to be bigger and better than ever!

The Amsterdam Lions proudly invite everybody, teams and individuals, to make Lowlands 2009 an ass-kicking knock-down drag-out weekend with loads of action, partying, and top quality lacrosse once again! Check out www.lowlandslacrosse.nl for more information. Hopefully see you from 22nd till the 24th of May in Amsterdam!
